In compliance with the legal requirements of the US Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) and the OECD Common Reporting Standard (CRS) regarding the automatic exchange of information (AEOI), as well as the applicable intergovernmental agreement (IGA) and national implementing acts, as amended, the Bank is obliged to obtain information from its banking clients regarding their residence for tax purposes. Thus this form is to be completed and legally signed by each individual account holder / securities account holder¹ (hereinafter referred to as "Account Holder"). This self-certification (hereinafter referred to as "Self-Certification") forms an integral part of all services contracts that have been concluded between the Account Holder and the Bank. The correct and up-to-date client-relevant, client-identifying data (e.g. address, date of birth, citizenship) which was obtained in the context of the opening of the client's account via the account opening form and updated by the Account Holder over the course of the business relationship is part of this Self-Certification.

¹ If there are multiple Account Holders, each Account Holder must fill out a separate Self-Certification.

² In this context the singular includes the plural and vice-versa, and the "male" form of address includes the "female" form of address as the context of this Self-Certification may require.

⁵ The TIN is the identification number issued by the individual country for tax purposes and for the purpose of international data exchange. Provision of the TIN is only required if the respective country of residence issues these numbers for their citizens (e.g. Social Security Number in the US; for Account Holders with a domicile/tax domicile in the EU, the EU website provides information about TINs: https://ec.europa.eu/taxation_customs/tin/tinByCountry.html?locale=en).
